.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ of mandamus, or any other appropriate writ, order or direction, declaring the action of the respondents in interfering with the private life and liberty of the petitioner by harassing the petitioner, by calling to their office for no reason, as illegal, arbitrary and violative of principles of natural justice and violative of Art.21 of Constitution of India and for a consequential order directing the respondents not to interfere with the personal life and liberty of the petitioner and pass such other order or orders as may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.CH.DHANAMJAYA

Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR HOME

The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

ORAL ORDER:

Heard both sides. Perused the material placed before me.

The grievance of the petitioner in this writ petition is that the respondents are calling him quite often to the police station, without there being any valid reason, and they are interfering with the civil disputes.

It is needless to say that the police shall not deviate from their official duties and interfere with the settlement of civil disputes. An impression shall not be given to the public that the police are exceeding their limits by interfering with the private affairs of the public.

However, if there is any complaint lodged by anybody, necessary investigation, in accordance with law, undoubtedly, can be initiated against the person so responsible.

With the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of at the stage of admission. No costs.
